

The Union.

Junction, Kansas, Nov. 19, 1864.

The Sabbath school is not yet as full as it ought to be. It is becoming more interesting each Sabbath. Last Sabbath one little girl recited over nine hundred questions, and some half-dozen others did over five hundred. Let every family send their children out.

Register of Deeds.—I have appointed Henry Ganz Deputy Register of Deeds for Davis, Clay and Ottawa counties. Persons having business with the office will find the books at his store. Wm. S. BLAKELY, Register of Deeds.

In Business Again.—Henry Ganz has repurchased his entire stock of goods, and again guides the helm of business at the old stand. This will be gratifying to his many old customers, who were loth to part with him after so many years of pleasant business intercourse. He has now gone to Leavenworth and Kansas City, and will return in a few days with as large and complete a stock of goods as was ever brought into Western Kansas. Parties wishing to buy had better await his arrival.

A Fine Stock of Goods.

JUNCTION CITY, Nov. 18, 1864.

Messrs. Blakely & Martin:—We wish through your paper to inform the people of Western Kansas that we now have, and will be constantly receiving, a large and well selected stock of Dry Goods, Ready Made Clothing, Boots & Shoes, Hats & Caps, Hardware, Queensware, &c., &c.

Our goods were selected with special reference to the wants of this section, and will be sold at a very small advance on cost and transportation. Goods of every description are very high; but we have made it a point to buy the best goods in market, believing that they will in the end be the cheapest and give better satisfaction to our customers, whom we strive to please in quality as well as in price.

Our stock of Boots & Shoes is the best we ever brought to this market. We have Men's Boots of all descriptions; Boys' and Children's Boots of all sizes; Men's Women's, Boys', Misses' and Children's Shoes of all sizes and qualities. Our stock of Ladies' Shoes is large, and no one can fail to be suited. We also have Ladies' and Men's Overshoes.

Our stock of Clothing is good; we have Business Coats, Overcoats, Pants, Vests, Undershirts, Drawers, Cassimeres, Overalls, Buck Gloves, Buck Gaiters, Men and Boy's Suits, Scarfs, Collars, &c., &c.

We have a splendid assortment of Hats & Caps—Hats of all styles, from $1.50 to $7. In Caps we have Cloth, Plush, Seal, Beaver, &c., &c.

We have a beautiful selection of Prints—de laines, Scotch plaids, ladies' cloth, plain and printed flannel, plaid linings, &c. Also ladies' hoods, rubias and stockings in cashmere, satinetts, heavy twills, &c. for pants; bleached and brown sheet, g. drills, cotton flannel, white bed blank, grey blankets, &c.

Axes and hoes, boys' axes, hatchets, hammers, grind stones and fixtures, grain reaps, straw cutters, iron, nails, glass, putty, &c.—glass cut to any required size.

We have the best and most complete sausage cutter and stuffer ever manufactured. We have used them, and will warrant them to cut more and give better satisfaction than any other cutter in the country.

Among our canned fruit, &c., we have peaches, plums, cherries, gooseberries, blackberries, whortleberries, strawberries, pineapples, green peas, tomatoes, oysters and honey. We have a splendid article of honey put up in tin cans. In dried fruits we have peaches, blackberries, cherries, prunes.

We also keep an assortment of school-books—McGuffey's readers and spellers, Wilson's readers, elementary spelling book, Ray's arithmetic and algebra, Pinneo's grammars, Cornell's geography and Spencer's copy book. We have also an assortment of blank books, memorandum books, diaries for 1865, paper, envelopes, steel pens, Morton's gold pens, pencils, ink, &c. Cigars we will sell by the box as low as they can be got from Leavenworth.

It is our intention to largely increase our business, and we shall endeavor to keep everything in our line that may be called for. Any article not on hand will be ordered immediately. By an arrangement with the Express Company we can receive goods from Leavenworth within four or five days from the time they are ordered.

We will pay the highest market price for Corn and Pork. At present we are paying $1.50 per bushel for corn shelled and delivered here.

Believing that our facilities are such that we can make it to the interest of those wanting anything in our line to purchase of us, we invite all to call and examine our goods and prices before making their purchases.

Respectfully,
STREETER & STRICKLER.

From Sherman.

The New York Herald has a sketch of the movements of Sherman and Hood, since September. When Hood commenced his flank movement in November the army of the Tennessee left Rome and was on route to Atlanta. On the 4th of November the 5th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, and 20th corps had been concentrated at the last named city. Preparations are being made to begin a movement. Sherman felt in the highest spirits and telegraphed his intentions in these remarkable words:

Hood has crossed the Tennessee. Thomas will take care of him and Nashville. Schofield will not let him into Chattanooga or Knoxville. Georgia and South Carolina are at my mercy. I shall strike. Don't be anxious about me. I am all right." This is his adieu.

Rebel papers already admit he has started on his march. Where is he going? Andersonville, where the rebels have 20, 000 Union prisoners penned up like hogs, lies in his way.

But a few days ago Sherman wrote to the President of the St. Louis Sanitary Commission:

I thank you for your prompt fulfillment of my request to send certain articles for our prisoners at Andersonville. Things have changed since, and I may have to go in person and deliver the articles to the prisoners.
